Summary of reasons for decision:

This is a short film made by high school students for the Newlands College short film competition - the NOSCARS 2020. This film deals with violence and contains occasional use of offensive language. Whilst some of these elements could well be momentarily unsettling or startling for children, they are unlikely to cause long-term or serious harm. The film is, however, clearly more appropriate for older viewers and is therefore classified as unrestricted with a recommendation that it is more suitable for a mature audience. This classification places no limitation on the right to freedom of expression.
